Susan Payne:apologies for being late
Julie Hedlund:We're glad you are here Susan :-)
Julie Hedlund:And everyone else of course!
Susan Payne:Ah, I'm glad you asked that question Kristine!
Ariel Liang:Questions included in the survey data table are highlighted on the document

Kristine Dorrain:Very helpful, thanks Susan!

Kristine Dorrain:normally I don't mind leaping in to volunteer to chair but with my voice/cold, I'm not fit today.

Kristine Dorrain:Happy to support staff or anyone else.

Susan Payne:thanks Julie, if you're happy to I'm sure we'll all leap in Kristine Dorrain:Yes, I think we do.

Susan Payne:yes +1

Kristine Dorrain:I think we wait to review #1 till the end

Susan Payne:Yes I think so re extended claims

Berry Cobb:right. I don't recall any extended sunrise. but for sure several registries have extended or open ended claims.

Berry Cobb:question is do they use the ICANN tmch or the secondary system they stood up to offer other services.

Berry Cobb:they being Deloitte

Kristine Dorrain:Berry, the secondary system is new, right?

Kristine Dorrain:So any of the extended claims would have used the main service?

Berry Cobb:new as in a few years, but I've only heard about it. no other intel.

Berry Cobb:can't say for certain.

Susan Payne:so Berry does ICANN have data about which registries did extend Claims?

Mary Wong:Donuts (in its response to the WG near the beginning of our work) confirmed that it uses the TMCH, especially the SMD files, to provide DPML service.

Susan Payne:I know we have asked a question about extended claims

Mary Wong:Yes we have those responses. I believe we may have also prepared a list of all the DMPL-type services being offered by the various ROs.

Berry Cobb:we do. 6 months ago staff presented data on launch as recorded on microsite. need to refresh that data, but decent hands full have extended or open ended entries

Kristine Dorrain:Yes, Mary, I think it would be helpful to review the results.

Kristine Dorrain:Julie, we're losing you

Kristine Dorrain:you're back

Kristine Dorrain:(or maybe it's just me)

Susan Payne:thanks Berry for reminding me

Kristine Dorrain:I'm WFH today, so it might be my internet

Susan Payne:yes now you are back

Julie Hedlund:@Kristine: Noted -- not the providers session as that is URS. For the Sub Team meeting.

Berry Cobb:would be good to have mmx there too. likely someone will be at 61

Kristine Dorrain:Good...what about Radix (is that the other one?)

Berry Cobb:I don't recall radix, but not for sure. centralnic is their backend

Susan Payne:yes for sure Kristine

Kristine Dorrain:thanks Julie

Kristine Dorrain:yes, lease

Michelle DeSmyter:Welcome Kathy!

Cyntia King:Good thought @Kathy

Kathy:Hi All, sorry to be late.

Kathy:On train, so not on phone...

Kristine Dorrain:hi Kathy!

Mary Wong:Staff has created a page for this Sub Team that includes this set of questions (which are the ones that an earlier Sub Team had sent to the full WG for discussion); the various registry responses to the previous survey; and the staff summary of all the Additional RPMs currently being offered:

Cyntia King:SOrry, Good thought @Kritsine

Kristine Dorrain:Perfect MARY! Homework that we can study on the flights down to PR!

Kathy:Looking forward to seeing everyone in PR!

Susan Payne:yes

Kristine Dorrain:I think so

Berry Cobb:yes

Mary Wong:I'll put it in

Julie Hedlund:Weird, Kristine showed up first for me, but now Susan does.

Berry Cobb:sorry. listen mode only

Kristine Dorrain:I should be, because I'm subjecting you all to my voice.

Kristine Dorrain:Agree Susan. Backup plan only.

Kathy:Alas, audio is not work on the train. Sorry to miss this discussion!

Susan Payne:although of course I don't think in most cases the PMLs have operatedv to block another brand owner. so we're not expecting many positive answers to this

Kristine Dorrain:Right

Mary Wong:We may not be able to add to what is published in the RFP right now, but the proposed work plan does include an opportunity for the sub team to consult with the selected provider

Kristine Dorrain:Can we start a list?
Kristine Dorrain:Yes of topics to remember to bring up
Kristine Dorrain:thank you'
Cyntia King:clarification
Ariel Liang:Additional guidance to the survey provider corresponding to the charter questions can be included when Sub Team is working with the survey provider
Kristine Dorrain:+1 Susan...yes, clarification, like Cyntia said
Ariel Liang:Yes
Julie Hedlund:Sorry -- another call was coming in that blocked me from talking evidently.
Susan Payne:yes, good idea
Mary Wong:As someone may have mentioned earlier on this call, Jon Nevett has said perviously he will be happy to chat.
Kristine Dorrain:Yes, he has
Kristine Dorrain:+1
Cyntia King:As these groups are aligned, but still have separate objectives/needs, I think I'd still like to ask the TMCH the questions here
Kristine Dorrain:Yes, I think we will, Cyntia
Kristine Dorrain:I think we might add or change them a bit
Susan Payne:we agree - just timing
Kristine Dorrain:after we know more
Cyntia King:Got it.
Cyntia King:Nope
Kristine Dorrain:I'm lumping it with Q2
Susan Payne:yes me too
Kristine Dorrain:Agree, Julie
Kristine Dorrain:thanks for chairing, Julie!!!
Cyntia King:Happy Friday!
Susan Payne:only thanks to you Julie
Kristine Dorrain:see you in PR!
Ariel Liang:thanks everyone!
