

Registrar Constituency Advocate

Position reports to: Chair, ICANN Registrar Constituency (RC), and supports the RC as a whole, as well as the Executive Committee members

Main purpose

Provide advocacy support to the RC

Key responsibilities

- Assist the RC in developing RC positions on various ICANN-related policy and other issues
- Draft impact statements and position papers on behalf of the RC during the ICANN policy development process
- Draft RC statements related to non-policy related ICANN issues
- Assist the RC in developing public responses to various ICANN-related issues
- Represent the RC in oral advocacy opportunities on request
- Participate in RC meetings and RC Executive Committee meetings on request
- Perform other services on request

Ideal Candidate Profile

Related experience/Interpersonal skill set

- Experience in advocating public policy issues
- Familiarity with internet/technology industry required
- Familiarity with ICANN an asset
- Ability to organize a large group of people and achieve consensus on an issue
- Excellent written advocacy skills required
- Strong oral advocacy skills an asset
- Ability to remain calm and focused in high-pressure situations
- Collaborates well in one-on-one situations and in group settings
- Self-motivated, with strong sense of ownership and urgency to deliver
- Highly adaptable

Education

- Graduate-level education, preferably in law or public policy